

Smart JAMP(2021) Pre-feasibility Study on the Introduction of City OS for the Realization of Smart City in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Category of Issues in the Area

Target Area	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia
Background and Purpose	In Kuala Lumpur, for comprehensive development of smart city, establishment of a platform to integrate and analyze various data which the city owns is a pressing issue today. This project will conduct a survey and study on the grand design of the smart city platform and its implementation process. Further, Japanese technologies for the waste management and bicycle use promotion are studied and introduced through seminars.
Related Organization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kuala Lumpur
Project Stage	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pre-feasibility Study
Content and Results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This study is scheduled to be conducted in fiscal year 2022, due to the inconvenience of the government of the partner country.

Model of Smart City Platform

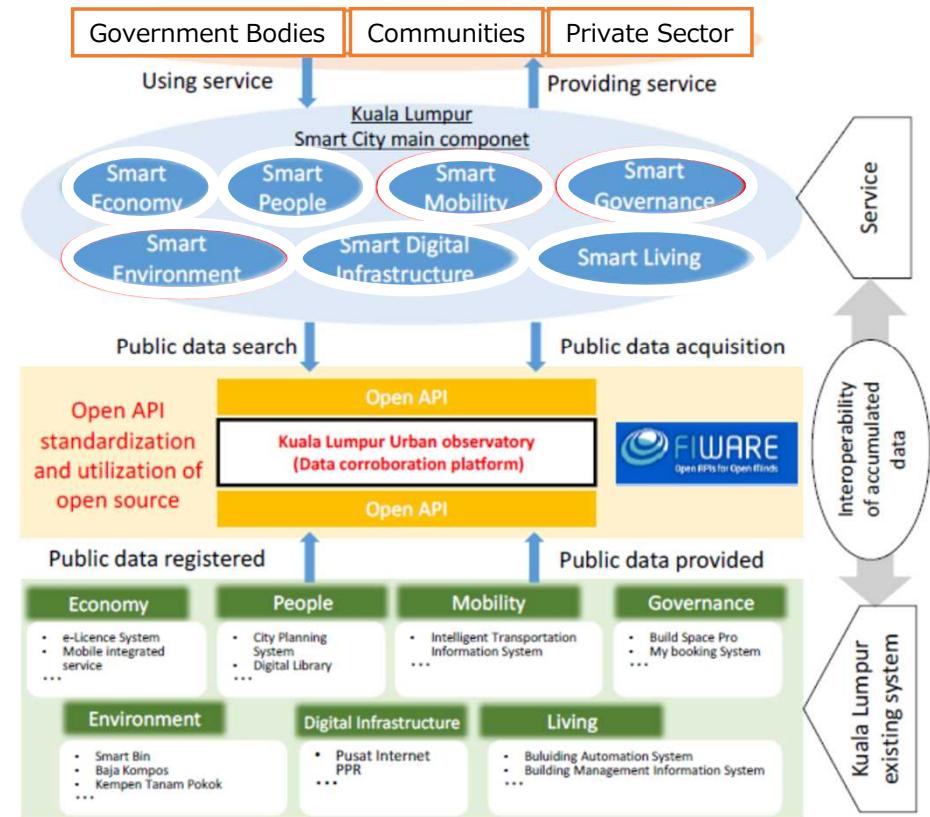

Figure1: Overview of City OS to be introduced in Kuala Lumpur